8. Mayor's Comments Councillor Members Topics & Concerns

Councillor Issakiark

- Says; I am glad that we saw each other again here at the Hamlet Chambers.
- Says; A couple weeks ago by-law didn't stop at the stop sign and started following behind us, I just wanted to inform this before it gets a little too late and make sure they're following the rules.

Councillor Alareak

- Asked; The letter from Luke Suluk, He is asking again if he can move back to the white building to have heritage society office, I wonder if he can have a space at the Bob Leonard building?.
- Says; I had a phone call regarding the Arviaqpaluk, there was a complaint for one of the workers and I had no idea how to respond to that complaint, who do we appoint to and how can we respond to that?

Councillor Komakjuak

- Says; I am glad that the rec is reopening to the public again, seeing a lot of happy face's going to the arena. I had one question regarding the dressing room, when will they start using the dressing room because hockey players dress up at home.
- Says; I just wanted to thank all the Council, Mayor and our SAO that we have something to look forward to for this spring, as there will be fishing derby as well as races for this year.

Deputy Mayor Kidlapik

- Asked; I was just wondering if we're still contracting with the CGS that was held back in November before the lockdown and if it's urgent matter.

Councillor Caskey

- Says; I am glad that were getting to somewhere instead of being closed due to covid arena is now open that's a good start and it is so good to see happy face everywhere again.

Councillor Hannak

- Asked; talking about reopening when is Nevada opening?

Mayor Savikataaq

- Says; I just wanted to give all council a one year heads up with the auditor, councils will decide regarding the CGS contract either long term or under contract with the CGS.
