Councillor Caskey

- Says we will miss you William good luck in Iqaluit, I hope you will be back home and become teacher here, safe travels to you and your family

Councillor Hannak

- Says, one of the things I remember there used to be businesses gathering up together to meet and have a plan that could happen to different companies. There used to be plan if there is anything happening. I want the Hamlet to work with any stake holders in case if there is any emergency we will know who to contact weather it's in Arviat or out on the land weather its day or night weather in land or on the shore. I want the council to have emergency plan for any kind of disaster for Emergency this has to be looked at.

Councillor Tiktaq

- Says officially my last meeting tonight as we are moving to Iqaluit, best of luck to all those who will be elected as new councillors, I have gain some knowledge and skills while I was here as council
